PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

The Classic Irish Chippendale side chair is a copy of a great find in Dublin of a chair of around 1780. This chair retains all the magnificently detailed features of the original.

For instance: the finely pierced, interlaced and fretted back splat, and the typical Chippendale straight legs. In addition, the cross stretchers ensure strength and durability.

It also features a handsome comfortable saddle-shaped seat, shown here with one of many options: finished with brass nails in two rows.
